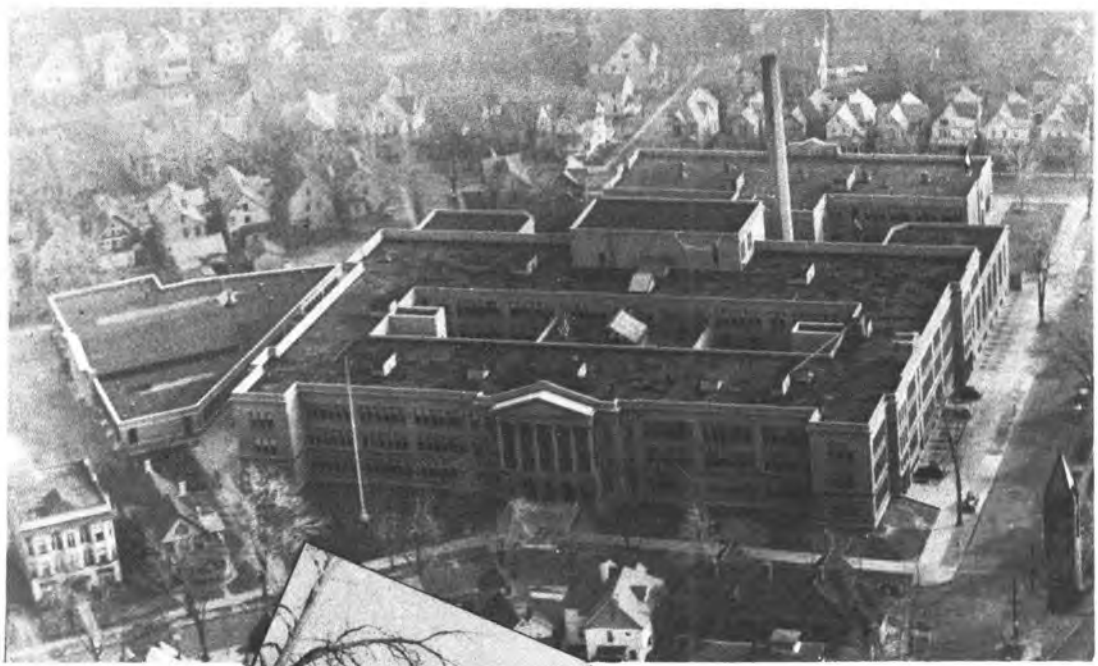
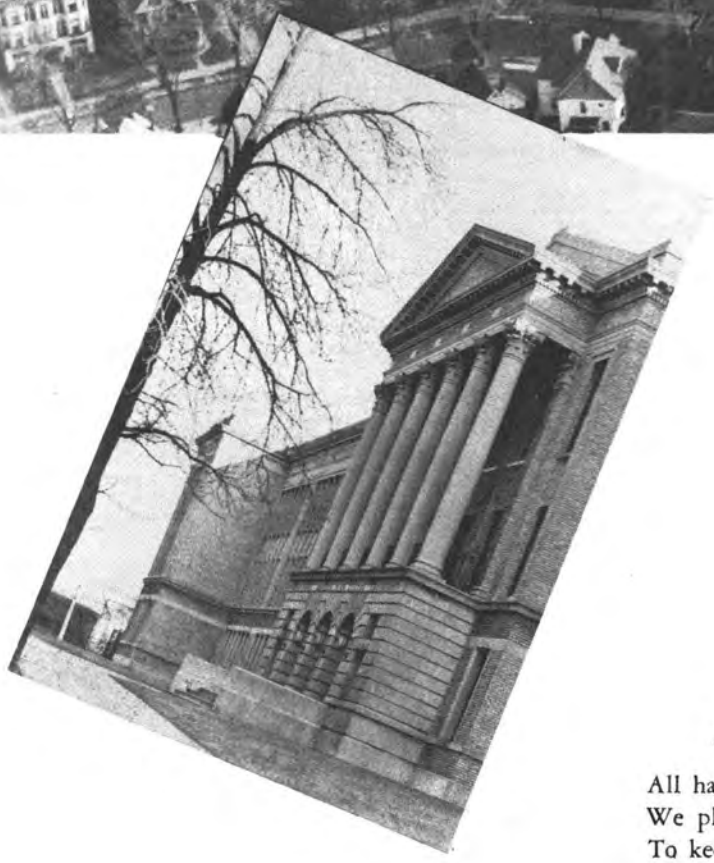
MONROE HIGH SCHOOL

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

1946 THE SENIOR CLASS presents the MONROLOG





Alma Mater

All hail to thee, our dear Monroe,
We pledge our loyalty and strive
To keep our flag of red and blue
Within these walls with pride.
We plan anew, to bring to you
Service and trust always,
And when we've gone, may we recall
The joys of student days.

It was one of the best Summers I ever spent in my life. Sincere my regard to all Keuka Lake

Best of luck Woodie

Best of luck to you in Latin-I brain ia Dot Mitchell

Class Log

1942

Sept. 8—Well, here we are at Monroe——freshmen.

Oct. 6—MONROE LIFE came off the press with Jean Barth as Editor-in-Chief. We reviewed the MONROE LIFE with awe as we gazed upon it for the first time. Man-power shortage: eighty eleventh grade girls form a new corridor patrol.

Oct. 20—Over-enthusiastic football fans broke two plate glass windows in a downtown store. They couldn't have been from Monroe!

Oct. 21—Conversation overheard today:

Mr. Carver: You know dear, I forgot my umbrella.

Mrs. Carver: How did you remember that you had forgotten it?

Mr. Carver: Well, I missed it when I raised my hand to close it after it stopped raining.

Nov. 18—At the request of Army and Navy officials, Monroe announced a program of "Commando swimming."

Dec. 10—Hurray! No more school today—air-raid dismissal.

1943

Jan. 1—Resolutions made, resolutions broken.

Feb. 22—Students and faculty assist in distributing War Ration Book II. Need an extra book?

Mar. 19—For the first time, Monroe's basketball team captured Interscholastic crown and advanced to Class AA sectionals.

Apr. 1—The birthday of Fligebert Gremlin.

Apr. 27—Monrolog makes debut.

May 21—Senior Class Day—we have three years.

May 28—Senior Banquet—we have three years yet.

June 4—Senior Prom—we have three more years yet.

June 22—Graduation—well, we'll at least be sophomores next year.

Sept. 7—Well, fellow sophs, we're back to the old grind again.

Oct. 8—Student association elections. Results: Yin Goon Lew, president; Bill Rowley, vice-president; Betty Magarian, secretary.

Oct. 15—Vice-principal V. James Morgan resigns after twenty years of service, to take up duties as executive secretary of the Rochester Rotary Club.

Oct. 20—Six commando ropes installed in boys' gym for stronger sex.

Nov. 4—Sophomore class election results: William McCreedy, president; Don Cushing, vice-president; Gloria Venema, secretary; Jack Peachey, Marion Watkins, social chairmen.

Dec. 24—After being excused from school a week early this year, we patiently await the arrival of Santy Claus.

Dec. 25—Boo-hoo!!! Santy Claus didn't come!!

1944

Jan. 1—This year, we broke our resolutions before we even made them.

Jan. 20—"Chester from Rochester" purchased by city high-school students. Monroe's quota, $23,000.

Mar. 17—Monroe Redjackets win second straight city basketball crown. Defeated in sectionals at the jam-packed University of Rochester Palestra by Hornell, 26-25.

Mar. 23—MONROE LIFE celebrates 20th birthday.

June 27—At last, we're free for three months!

Sept. 4—We entered the prison gates this bright, rainy day as Juniors.

Oct. 5—MONROE LIFE came out with Joyce Gitelman as editor, and Ralph Hyman as sports editor.

Oct. 27—No school. New York State Teacher's meeting.

Nov. 3—Don Wright finished first in Section V cross-country classic at River Campus.

Nov. 9—Conversation overheard:

Mr. Bacon: Why didn't you answer my question?

Edgar Kaplan: I shook my head.

Mr. Bacon: Well, I can't hear your head rattle clear over here.

Dec. 24—We hang up our stockings in anticipation.

1945

Jan. 5—Snow, snow, snow.

Jan. 17—Monroe quints trip Madison five by 39-30 victory.

Feb. 26-28—NO SCHOOL—NO COAL.

Mar. 1—Back to school. Fuel shortage still acute. Class periods shortened.

Mar. 5—1945 Monrolog staff announced, Lesta Quackenbush, editor-in-chief.

Mar. 22—Study hall gossip:

Cal Miller: You say you were singing songs under your girl's window and she threw you a flower?
Bud Starling: Yeah! But she forgot to take it out of the pot.

Mar. 22—Ralph Hyman assumes post of Editor-in-chief of the MONROE LIFE.

Mar. 22—For the third straight year, Monroe's basketball team has captured the Interscholastic League crown and has gone to the sectionals.

June 26—School is out! At last we'll be seniors—stand back!!!

Sept. 4—First day of school. The prison gates opened and warden Wm. Hawley persuaded us to finish the last year of our four-year stretch.

Sept. 20—Student Association officers elected. Results: Don Cushing, president; C. Thomas Alesi, vice-president; Hannahbelle Haggett, secretary.

Oct. 4—First issue of MONROE LIFE for the new term appeared with Ralph Hyman retaining editorship.

Oct. 11—Monroe held its first dance of the term. Bill Nicely's orchestra provided the music. The proceeds went to the War Memorial Fund Drive.

Oct. 18—Vincent Burns, well-known poet, spoke at a senior assembly. His speech was "Literature and Life."

Oct. 24—Bob Quigley, disguised as "Dr. I. Q." was quizmaster of a contest in junior assembly. (Also, his jokes were strictly from hunger.)

Nov. 3—Coach Ro Milanette left Monroe to assume new job at the Hillside Home. He had been here since 1942, when he had just finished college.

Nov. 12-15—"Know Your School Week." Parents and guests visited classes and tea was served daily in the cafeteria.

Dec. 7-8—Monroe faculty and students present the Kaufman-Hart comedy, "You Can't Take It With You." This was our first evening play since 1943. Mrs. Stolbrand played the inebriate, Leonard Potter appeared in the Roman costume and Miss Dumas was Penny. The whole production was a rip-roaring success.

Dec. 12—Four seniors voiced opinions in assembly on "Junior Town Meeting" concerning Compulsory Military Training. Dr. Howard Seymour, acting as mediator, kept peace between the pros and cons.

Dec. 13—Bill Dana took over editorship of the MONROE LIFE and June Levin became News Editor.

Dec. 18—Last school day of 1945. Merry Christmas!

1946

Jan. 2—School reopens. Our last six months of high school begins. (Last six months for some of us, that is.)

Jan. 14—Monrolog Staff elects Marvin Renner and Lois Joseph as Editors of this year's logrolling.

Jan. 21—French Honor Society adopts French orphans to write to.

Feb. 6—All-boy cast presented a Western play called "Summer Comes to the Diamond O." Between Ray Finn and Les Hurwitz, the audience was literally rolling in the aisles.

Feb. 12—Joseph Auslander, author of "Winged Horse" and numerous other volumes of poetry, appeared here at a special assembly. Guests from other schools were invited to hear this noted person. He was well-received and well-liked.

Feb. 21—"The Cherry Tree Stomp", our Washington dance was a huge success. A jitterbug and a boogie-woogie contest were held during intermission. Dan Patterson walked off with a pound of candy for winning the boogie-woogie contest.

Mar. 1—Red Cross Campaign launched. The goal for the school $435. Diehl Ott and Ginnie Bickford were the general chairmen of the drive for Monroe.

Apr. 1—A tragic loss; the school burned down. April Fool!

May 17—Class Day, the senior's own day. Davida Owsowitz was in charge of all the plans.

Jun. 1—The Senior Prom. Under the direction of Jean McDonald and Bob Quigley.

Jun. 7—Ralph Hyman was chairman of the Senior Banquet which was held today.

Jun. 17-20—Ugh! Exams!

Jun. 25—At last it's all over. Graduation was beautiful! Now it's your turn, juniors.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1946, of the school of Monroe, in the County of Monroe and State of New York, having been at least slightly exposed to a secondary education and still being of sound mind and body, Whereas, our graduation marks the end of the reign of terror of Don Cushing, Tom Alesi, and Hannahbelle Haggett, our ever faithful Student Council Officers, to whom we are all deeply indebted, Therefore, we, the hopeful graduates of Monroe, do make, publish and declare this our last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say:

To our teachers, one and all, we express our deepest gratitude and thanks for their patience, help, and sacrifice, in dragging us through the four, long years at Monroe.

To the future students of Monroe, we leave the cherished and hallowed halls of Monroe in which to saunter.

To Principal Hawley, we leave an orderly and quiet assembly hall.

To Miss Andrews, we leave one-hundred thanks for such nourishing lunches in our four year stay.

To the Monroe Life Staff, we leave a "Joe Miller Joke Book" and some copies of the Brighton Trapezoid for future reference.

To our cheerleaders, we bequeath some new cheers and more student-wind support in the future.

To Mr. Comfort, we humbly give a clean cafeteria.

To Miss Schminke, we leave one mimeographing machine and a book on how to make outlines.

To Mrs. Clement, our nurse, we leave one barrel of peppermint.

To Mr. Gates, we, the male students of Monroe, hereby leave our draft cards instead of our college applications.

To Mr. Rose, we bequeath the slide rule in room 163.

To Miss Curtiss and Miss Marrocco, we leave an automatic counting machine and a new system of obtaining passes.

To Mrs. Stolbrand, we give an honorary membership card in the W.C.T.U.

To Miss Waugh, we bequeath one marriage certificate and one new Tulu doll.

To our future varsity teams, we bequeath the will to win.

Lastly, we beseech the future students and walls of the school to lend support to the school spirit, scholastic standing, and all undertakings of Monroe High School.

In Witness Whereof, I, the class president, have hereunto set my hand and seal at Rochester, Monroe County, N. Y., this 10th day of May, 1946.

Military Needs Increase

General Alan Miller and Admiral Marvin Clickner demanded more men for the armed forces during a Senate committee meeting yesterday. At the same time the feminine heads of the women's branches, Hannahbelle Haggett, and Shirley Swartz, said more women were needed also.

GOP Senator Introduces Bill

Senator William Carson yesterday introduced a bill which, if passed, would provide for a three hour school day for all students over eight years. He was supported by senators Mark Adams, Ronald Bruczicki, and William Dana. Secretary of Labor, Fred Grossman, said he had no comment. The movement is supported by a women's league headed by Virginia Dapore and Dorothy Phillips.

Society

An afternoon bridge party will be held this Friday, by the Wednesday Afternoon Ladies Aid. On the committee are Anna Barsamian, Helene Blank, Pat Bush, and Alice Doud . . . . This Saturday the Women's Monroe Alumnus Club will hold its annual formal dinner dance. Chairman is Virginia Bickford. On her committee are Jean Chase, Audrey Riess, and Anne Corcoran. Entertainment will be provided by Tink Molin and his "Music Maulers." Mr. Molin has with his band that sensational new girls trio, the "Holmes Sisters," Jean, Joan, and Patsy. Also on the bill is that master magician Phil Donolatos . . . . Norman Roadarmel, M. Mus., will appear at the Eastman Theatre with his "talking" violin . . . . It is reported that Miss June Levin will be married next week to Admiral Warren Snobbletree . . . . Mrs. Lois Snickerhopp, the former Lois Joseph, has just received her Master's degree from the U. of R. . . . . Mary Santo has just been awarded the Regional Gold Prize for her painting, "Infinity" . . . . Ruth Hobblenail, the former Ruth Ricard, is the proud mother of twins at Highland Hospital.

Labor Leaders Speak

Head of the CIO, John Merkel, and AFL leader James LeChander, said they would fight any move made to reduce pay by those industrial giants Edgar Kaplan, Richard Epstein, and George Grice.

Magnate's Life Saved

The life of millionaire oil man, Diehl Ott was saved yesterday at Strong Memorial Hospital by a dangerous brain operation performed by that eminent surgeon, Jack Peachey. Frances Bufano and Mary Mitchell assisted.

Judge Grants Divorce

Judge Joe Rosenbloom yesterday granted a divorce to Calvin Miller. Mr. Miller's former wife was the former Miss Mabel Snodgrass, a graduate of East High. Miss Snodgrass' case was pleaded by Don Slote. Mr. Miller's lawyer was Ralph Hyman.

At a recent coaches' meeting in New York City two nation-wide known coaches were present. They were Charley Nesbitt and Richard Wiles. Nesbitt is at present the head coach at Michigan, while Wiles holds the same position at Ohio State. Both have had very successful seasons. They have been widely known as pro-players . . . . Currently starring for the Rochester Royals are Maurice Isner, Dick Stoetzel, and Ed Cunningham. All three made All-National League and played in the recent all-star game at Chicago. The board of directors of the Royals now includes Harold Connor, Dick Corrigan, and Graham Chamberlain . . . . Ray Hayes is now playing for the newly organized pro-football club here . . . . Red Loucks and Charles Churukian are members of the U. S. Olympic track team, while George Anderson is a member of the Olympic Swimming Team.

Engineers Abducted

Police yesterday reported the kidnapping of two engineers reportedly working on secret government projects. The two engineers were Don Cushing and John Baas. Although the type of work was not divulged, it was presumed to be on a new type of rocket ship. F.B.I. chief Robert Quigley was quoted as saying that an arrest was expected soon. The investigators at the scene of the crime were detectives Tom Alesi and Ray Finn. Both Alesi and Finn were baffled.

Cinema

News reporter Dan Patterson reports from Hollywood that Bob Brooks, that wild play-boy and man-about-town just gave away another car to some lucky girl. . . .Miss Patty Neel has just signed a new contract with MGM. (Miller, Goldberg, and Moscowitz) . . . . Ann Alexander has just signed to paint and design all the new sets for the forthcoming Paramount picture, "Don Juan of the Desert" starring Bill McCreedy, that new heart throb of the American girl. Supporting McCreedy in the cast will be Joyce Guest, Claire Leonard, and Margie McNair . . . . Bert Tannenbaum is complaining because his studio is again casting him in a criminal role . . . . That new comedy team of Ernie Thoresen and Al Unterborn has them rolling in the aisles. Both are good bowlers . . . . Marvin Renner, the head of Renner Publishing Co., Inc., just announced that Gloria Venema's latest book "Forever Ambrose" was just purchased by RKO . . . . Ed Murphy announced that his client, Bette Wadsworth, will tour the U. S. in an exhibition of the Russian Ballet . . . . Floyd Spencer, legitimate stage producer, announced that his new play will have in its cast the following actors: June Levin, Mary Alice Wiles, Carol Williams, Marion Watkins, Joyce Esley, and Wallie Velie . . . . Robert Stevens and Leonard Potter have just been signed up by the Metropolitan Opera Company.

President's Forum

The principal purpose of the President's Forum is to serve as an intermediary body between the Council and the student body. The forum, acting as a home-room publicity agency, maintains contact between the two groups on all important issues concerning the general welfare of the school. In the forum, homeroom presidents are given the opportunity to carry to the Council all recommendations from the student body. In this manner there is cooperation between the officers and the students and therefore coordination throughout the entire governmental system of the school.

Swimming

Our swimmers finished the season well up toward the top of the league. They won easily over East, Charlotte, Franklin, and Madison, and were beaten by Marshall, Jefferson, and West.

Our team is composed almost entirely of tenth and eleventh grade boys, therefore, the team next year should be much stronger than it was this season.

The hard working trio comprised of Cook, Donahue, and Tait, set the pace for the rest of the team, while the Howell brothers in the breast stroke, and Ken Moffitt in the dives, helped roll up the points. This team will bear watching next year.

The teams these boys encountered under the supervision and coaching of Mr. Lewis Michaelson are as follows:

Monroe	1300	West	1150
Monroe	1426	Charlotte	1301
Monroe	1368	East	1253

Bowling

Monroe High Keglers are really letting the pins fly this year. A team much superior to that of last year's has bowled its way to second place in the Interscholastic Bowling League, due to the splendid bowling of Captain Chuck Lundgren, Marvin Clickner, Roger Drexler, George Koch, Bob McVea, Bob Reinhardt, and Bob Reininger.

Anna Barsamian, Evelyn Cook, Hannahbelle Haggett, Elaine Kroha, Joan Scott, Bette Wadsworth, Norman Horton, Ernest Thoreson.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD!

No industry has a finer record of service to the public than the electric power industry. During all the war period there was neither rationing nor shortage. Power was never too little nor too late. And, almost alone among all things that go into the cost of living, electric service is selling at lower than pre-war prices.
